

Milestone chart: 31 to 36 months

Mastered Skills (most children can do)	Emerging Skills (half of children can do)	Advanced Skills (a few children can do)
Child's age: 31 and 32 months
• Builds a tower of six building bricks	• Puts on a T-shirt	• Calls a friend by his name
• Names at least six body parts	• Balances on each foot for a second
• Throws ball overarm	• Brushes teeth with supervision	• Uses two adjectives
Child's age: 33 and 34 months
• Names one colour	• Builds a tower of eight building bricks	• Completely toilet trained during the day
• Carries on a conversation of two to three sentences	• Uses prepositions (e.g. on, in, over)	• Wiggles thumb
• Names at least four pictures in a book	• Speaks clearly most of the time	• Expresses a wide range of emotions
Child's age: 35 and 36 months
• Can describe how two objects are used	• Balances on each foot for three seconds	• Hops and skips
• Uses four to five words in a sentence	• Can follow a two- or three-component command	• Draws a circle
• Names two actions (e.g. skipping, jumping)	• Separates fairly easily from parents	• Gets dressed without help